1. Where does the power come for us to live daily beyond reach of our flesh?

Galatians 2:19-21

I have been crucified with Christ and I no longer live, but Christ lives in me. The life I now live in the body, I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me. I do not set aside the grace of God, for if righteousness could be gained through the law, Christ died for nothing

Galatians 5:16-18

So I say, walk by the Spirit, and you will not gratify the desires of the flesh. For the flesh desires what is contrary to the Spirit, and the Spirit what is contrary to the flesh. They are in conflict with each other, so that you are not to do whatever you want.

Galatians 5:22-25

But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, forbearance, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control. Against such things there is no law. Those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires. Since we live by the Spirit, let us keep in step with the Spirit.

Galatians 6:8

Whoever sows to please their flesh, from the flesh will reap destruction; whoever sows to please the Spirit, from the Spirit will reap eternal life.

2. Where does the power come to overcome the godless world?

Galatians 6:14-16

May I never boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world.

Next week we will conclude our series on the book of Judges, "Flawed Heroes," with a look at the final chapters of Judges. Take some time to prepare with Judges 17-21.
