

NEW TO EASTBROOK?

WE'D LOVE TO MEET YOU!

Whether you're new to Eastbrook, or just feel disconnected, we'd love to meet you! During this strange season in our world, we as a staff are working overtime to help those who are disconnected and new find community. If that describes you, please reach out to Pastor Ruth Carver, rcarver@eastbrook.org, 414.228.5220 x208.

DO YOU HAVE KIDS?

We have a page on our website that contains all of our Eastbrook Kids at Home materials. You will find a link at eastbrook.org/athome. The password for this page is "eastbrookkids" and you will find Sunday School videos & activities for your kids there.

HOW CAN WE PRAY FOR YOU?

If you came to Eastbrook at Home today carrying a burden, don't leave without having someone pray for you. Reach out for prayer on our website at eastbrook.org/prayerrequest. Our team continues to pray for all of these needs during this confusing time.

TAKE A NEXT STEP!

The easiest way to make a big church feel smaller is to get involved. We have a wide range of classes, groups, events, and serving opportunities available. Find these opportunities in a few ways:

- Visit us online and sign up for our email lists (eastbrook.org/email)
- Download the Eastbrook App for your phone (eastbrook.org/app)

MESSAGES OF HOPE

In Gaza, police patrol the streets with loudspeakers, ordering people to stay home after the first two cases of Covid-19 were announced on Sunday. Social distancing is nearly impossible for the overcrowded refugee camps in Gaza, and there is a fear that the infection could spread quickly here.

Like the rest of the world, our field workers in the Middle East are social distancing at home, but are using this time to encourage others by creating and posting videos. These videos send a message of hope in this unique time where people are on their phones more than ever, searching for answers. Our field workers partner with an organization that has distributed thousands of Bibles over the past few years, and one recent video encouraged people to use this extra time to read the Bible.

Pray for our field workers as they reach out to the people around them in creative ways. Pray for people who view these videos to receive and believe the message of salvation and God's love for them. May God's mercy and grace be extended to the people of the Middle East.

CONNECT, GROW & SERVE

Even during this confusing time in our world, we are still reading together daily with the 2020 Lenten Devotional, "Seeing Jesus in the Old Testament Prophets." Find daily readings through the Eastbrook mobile App (in the "Devo" tab) or online at eastbrook.org/seeingjesus. Email Liz if you need a paper copy: lcarver@eastbrook.org.

Next Sunday is Palm Sunday, and the beginning of Holy Week at Eastbrook. We look forward to this week of seeing Jesus in a new way this year. The Maundy Thursday service will be posted on April 9 at 12 noon, the Good Friday service on April 10 at 12 noon, and the Easter Sunday service on April 12 at 8 am, all on eastbrook.org/athome.

This is a new gathering for us during this unexpected season. Anyone who is looking for some fellowship with other Eastbrookers, or who may be new to our church and is looking to connect is welcome to join us on Sundays at 11 am over Zoom. Contact Pastor Jim Caler for a link, jcaler@eastbrook.org.

We are moving a few of our mid-sized groups to Zoom! Zoom is an online platform for video conferencing. Missions Prayer is moving to Zoom, (contact Dan for the link, dryan@eastbrook.org). Kaleo is on Zoom on Thursdays at 7 pm (contact Angg, atucker@eastbrook.org), and so is Student Night (nfridenmaker@eastbrook.org)!

At this unexpected time in our world, we need to pray more than ever. If you are in need of prayer, please contact the church office during the week, we have Pastors on Contact during the week, info@eastbrook.org or 414.228.5220. You can also request prayer through our website at eastbrook.org/prayerrequest.

One of the best ways to stay in touch with events, catch up with sermon videos, and connect to other opportunities here at Eastbrook is through our email newsletters. Sign up for the weekly E-News, monthly Top Serving Needs email, and other communication from our Senior, Executive, and Missions pastors online at eastbrook.org/email.
