CH5060 AMERICAN CHURCH HISTORY

Wednesdays, September 1-December 15 · 6:30-9:15 pm · B224b/B226b

How has the Church in the United States responded to Jesus's prayer in John 17 that his followers be unified? Puritans sought to share the gospel with Native Americans while both slaveowners and abolitionists used the Bible to justify their views on slavery. This course examines the growth of Christianity from its earliest Protestant roots through the present day to understand how the body of Christ here has responded to the opportunities available to it in this increasingly pluralistic society. Sign up for this course with Terri Carlson; TEDS@eastbrook.org, 414.228.5220 x267.

CO6000 PASTORAL COUNSELING: GUILT & SHAME

Tuesdays, August 31-December 7 · 6:30-9:15 pm · Elmbrook Church (777 S. Barker Rd. Brookfield)

Guilt and shame are universal human issues, always impacting our lives and experiences. Since the fall in the garden, humanity has been wrestling with the moral problem of guilt and the personal experience of shame. It has been observed that in these issues religions and psychology meet. This course will present a review of the roles guilt and shame play in our lives, the psychology and theology of these phenomena, and a unique Christian model that offers both understanding and specific resolution strategies. Theory, research findings, theology will be implemented in practical applications for pastoral and mental health care. Sign up for this course with Terri Carlson; TEDS@eastbrook.org, 414.228.5220 x267.

ME6000 MISSIONS IN A POST-COVID WORLD

Sunday, October 10 Leadership Community · 2 pm · Worship Hall (see pg. 4)

Saturday, October 16 · 8:30 am-3:30 pm · B224b/B226b

This course will focus on the Church's missional engagement in our post-Covid world. The course will seek to address Christ's mandate to build His Kingdom in a world impacted by the ravages of our recent pandemic and in a time of the Western Church needing to set a course of global collaborative ministry in uncharted territory. Sign up for this course with Terri Carlson; TEDS@eastbrook.org, 414.228.5220 x267.
