DISCUSSION QUESTIONS:

1. When have you experienced generous provision for a need in your life? What happened?
2. This week we begin a new series, "Tis the Reason", which mirrors the Advent journey. We look today at Matthew 16:21-28. Begin your study in prayer by asking God to speak to you through the Scripture. Then, whether you're on your own or with others, read that passage aloud.
3. How would you summarize Jesus' depiction of His way as the Messiah in verse 21?
4. Why do you think this might have been confusing or shocking to people in Jesus' time?
5. In the immediately preceding passage, 16:13-20, Peter has offered one of the most striking and insightful declarations about Jesus. Now, Peter shockingly rebukes Jesus. Why do you think Peter does this after only recently declaring Jesus as Messiah?
6. Jesus' in turn rebukes Peter because "you do not have in mind the concerns of God, but merely human concerns." What do you think it means to have only human concerns but miss the concerns of God?
7. Jesus goes on to describe the life of His disciples in verses 24-26. What would you say are the identifying characteristics of Jesus' disciples here?
8. What do you think it means to live out that sort of discipleship in your everyday life? What do you find easiest or most difficult about this?
9. This passage concludes with Jesus' describing His coming glory in verses 27-28. What do you think this means and why is it here?
10. What is one thing God is speaking to you through this study? If you're on your own, write that down, pray over it, and share it with someone this week. If you are with a small group, share your answers with one another before closing in prayer.

DIG DEEPER:

This week dig deeper in one or more of the following ways:

- Memorize Matthew 16:21 or 16:24
- Journal, draw, paint, or ink this episode of Jesus' teaching and His interaction with Peter and the other disciples. As you do this, ask God to help you grow in understanding what He wants to speak to you about your relationship with Christ.
- Reread the Sermon on the Mount (Matthew 5-7) in light of Jesus' description of discipleship here in Matthew 16:24-26. As you read, lay areas of your life down before the Lord, confess sin that God brings to your mind, and invite Jesus to be Lord of your life in new ways.
- Consider reading further on the topics of this passage with John Stott's The Cross of Christ or Dietrich Bonhoeffer's The Cost of Discipleship.
