

HERE for GOOD

*...to proclaim and embody the love of Jesus
Christ in the city and in the world.*

Dear Eastbrook Family,

Since the earliest days of our church's existence, we have sought to be a community that could only be explained by the presence of the Holy Spirit and the power of prayer. From our beginnings on Milwaukee's east side to our present location on Green Bay Avenue, Eastbrookers have taken bold steps of faith and lived sacrificially so that we might proclaim and embody the love of Jesus Christ in the city and in the world.

That pursuit of God has led us to support field workers and local partners serving in hard places, whether a medical mission team sent to Somalia in the 1980s, partnership with an orphanage in China in the 1990s, or our work in the Horn of Africa and Middle East that continues today. That pursuit of God led us to our present campus where doorways of ministry opened through a growing intergenerational disciple-community that overflowed in external mission in many ways, including Eastbrook Academy, Bread of Healing, the International Community Center, and so much more.

I believe God has brought us to this campus for the good of our community but also for the good of others, both here in our city and around the world. I also believe God is not done with us yet. We want to continue to be here for good as a church, both as a growing community of Christ, on this Green Bay Avenue campus, and in external mission. We want to live out the description of the early Christian community in Acts 2:42, 46, 47.

In the following pages of this book, you will catch a glimpse of what we sense God is calling us into as a church in this new season. We want to continue living by the Holy Spirit and prayer as we grow deeper in faith, reach wider in mission, and strengthen our roots on this specific campus God has given us.

During this journey, I want to invite us as a church to draw near to God in renewing our bold faith and sacrificial living, to listen to God's leading individually and together, so that we might truly be here for good as a community for generations to come. I believe God has fresh and stretching things for us as we journey together as a community.

With prayer,

Pastor Matt Erickson

HERE FOR GOOD OVERVIEW

DEFINING MOMENTS

Milwaukee is spiritually hungry. In our city, people are searching for meaning, hope, purpose, and community. Many remain open to conversations about faith and Jesus, yet often feel disconnected from the church itself. That reality presents both a tremendous opportunity and a significant challenge. How do we continue to proclaim and embody the love of Jesus Christ in the city and in the world for the next generation?

From the very beginning, Eastbrook has believed God called us to be in the city. Our founders dreamed of a church that could only be explained by the power of the Holy Spirit. As the church grew, we could have looked elsewhere, but again and again God led us to deepen our roots here in Milwaukee.

In 1995, when the former St. Nicholas campus became available, Eastbrook embraced a long-term commitment to the city. We were not simply acquiring a building. We were saying yes to God's calling to be a faithful presence in this neighborhood for generations to come. Today, that calling remains unchanged.

Through Here for Good, we are investing in what matters most: people. We are strengthening our ministries, spaces, and partnerships that help us proclaim and embody the love of Christ. We are preparing the next generation of leaders, expanding ministry to our neighbors, and creating opportunities for more people to encounter Jesus.

DEFINING MOMENTS

The church is more than a building. It is a people sent by God into the world. For more than forty-five years, Eastbrook has been a faithful presence in the city of Milwaukee. Through worship, discipleship, education, compassion ministries, global missions, and community partnerships, God has allowed us to serve our city and our world in meaningful ways.

Here for Good is our renewed commitment to God's calling.

We want to:

- Deepen our roots in the community where God has called us to serve.
- Be known as a church that is genuinely for the good of our neighbors.
- Strengthen our ability to meet practical and spiritual needs.
- Invest in future generations of disciples and leaders.
- Sustain and expand ministry in Milwaukee and around the world.

We believe God is calling us to remain a steady presence of hope, reconciliation, and transformation in our city for decades to come.

Jesus is for Milwaukee. Jesus is for the nations. And so are we.

Eastbrook, we are Here for Good.

FAITH & DISCIPLESHIP

Here for Good begins with discipleship. Our greatest goal is to see every Eastbrooker grow deeper in faith, making Jesus the highest priority in every area of life. Through prayer, generosity, and commitment, we believe God is inviting us into a new season of spiritual growth (p. 9).

CORE MINISTRIES

Our core ministries are where people meet Jesus, find community, and grow as disciples. We will strengthen worship, care, discipleship, kids' & student ministries, and our ministry services so they can continue transforming lives for years to come (p. 10).

MISSIONS

Missions has always been part of Eastbrook's DNA. We will deepen our investment in local outreach and global partnerships, helping more people experience the love of Christ in Milwaukee and around the world (p. 11).

CAMPUS IMPROVEMENTS

Here for the Good of the Next Generation

We believe the next generation is worth investing in today. By improving spaces for kids, students, families, and Eastbrook Academy, we are creating environments where young people can grow in faith, community, and purpose (p. 14).

Here for the Good of the Community

Healthy ministry grows through meaningful relationships, and meaningful relationships need spaces where people can gather, connect, and belong. We will create welcoming, accessible environments that make it easier for people of all ages and abilities to participate fully in the life of our church community (p. 18).

Here for the Good of the City

For more than 20 years, Bread of Healing Clinic has been a powerful expression of Eastbrook's commitment to our city. We will meaningfully address vital needs for our clinic space in order to expand care, improve patient experience, and position this ministry to serve our neighbors for generations to come (p. 24).

Campus Stewardship

Faithful ministry requires faithful stewardship. By renewing the vital systems that keep our campus running, we are investing in a strong foundation that will support worship, discipleship, education, outreach, and community life for decades to come (p. 25).

FAITH & DISCIPLESHIP

Faith & Discipleship: Priceless

At the heart of Here for Good is a call to deeper discipleship. Eastbrook's primary goal is not simply to fund ministry or improve facilities, but to see every person who calls Eastbrook home place Jesus first in every area of life. This vision invites the congregation into renewed faith, generosity, prayer, and trust as we seek to follow Christ more fully together.

Just as previous generations stepped forward with bold faith and sacrificial commitment, we believe God is calling us into a new season of wholehearted discipleship that will strengthen both our individual walks with Christ and our shared mission as a church family.

CORE MINISTRIES

Core Ministries: $7M ($3.5M Annual Operations Budget x 2 years)

Here for Good will strengthen these vital ministries for the next two years, ensuring they remain healthy, effective, and positioned for future growth. By investing in the ministries that shape lives week after week, we are building on the strong foundation God has established through Eastbrook's history and preparing for greater impact in the years ahead.

MISSIONS

Acts 1:8

Missions: $1.3M
($650K Annual Missions Budget x 2 years)

Since our beginning, God has drawn Eastbrook into His larger story of missions around the world and placed missions at the heart of Eastbrook's identity. This has included many wonderful chapters in our story like the Somali hospital, China adoptions, welcoming the stranger, and so much more. Over the last three years, it has become clear that God is starting His next chapter for us in missions.

While we will continue our work here in the city of Milwaukee, God has now brought us into the next generation of missionaries and leaders in places where we have had deeply rooted relationships. This includes the successor for our dear sister Farida in North Africa, emerging leaders at the schools in Bethlehem and Hebron, and the next generation of workers in the Horn of Africa. All these "new" field workers flow out of decades-long relationships with Eastbrook.

But God is also doing a new thing as well, bringing us new relationships and opportunities to be a part of what He is doing in the hard places around the world. These include starting and building businesses to support the persecuted church, supporting community health outreach, training emerging leaders, and caring for the diaspora of persecuted people groups.

All the while, God continues to raise up and send out new field workers from within Eastbrook. This year alone we will send out two young adults through our new International Residency, with several more being prepared and equipped to go.

Our story of Eastbrook missions continues, and through Here for Good, we will be as strong and active of a sending church as always!

HERE FOR THE GOOD OF THE NEXT GENERATION

One of the most important ways we can invest in the future is by creating spaces that help children, students, and families thrive. Eastbrook's campus serves a growing ministry community within our own church, as well as within Eastbrook Academy, which reaches hundreds of students and families from across the region. As these ministries continue to grow, our facilities must be equipped to support their needs.

Here for Good includes investments in flexible, multi-use environments for student ministry, improvements that support children and families, and updated facilities that help Eastbrook Academy flourish. By strengthening the spaces that shape the next generation, we are creating environments where young people can discover and boldly pursue God's calling on their lives.

At the heart of this project is the new CHAPEL, a space where students can gather for worship, prayer, teaching, and spiritual formation. For the first time, grades 5–12 will have a place to call their own, creating a lasting spiritual home where the next generation can encounter God and grow in faith together.

The CHAPEL will also serve the broader church and Academy community, providing an intimate setting for smaller services, weddings, funerals, and other sacred gatherings. It will be a space set apart for the meaningful moments that shape our life and faith together.

THE COMMUNITY

Campus Improvements: $13M HERE FOR THE GOOD OF THE COMMUNITY

Eastbrook has always been more than a building. It is a place where people gather to worship, build relationships, find support, and grow together in Christ. As ministry has expanded, our campus has reached capacity, creating a need for spaces that better serve the life of the congregation and the broader community.

The Here for Good initiative will create new opportunities for connection by expanding gathering areas, enlarging the lobby, and adding a flexible, mid-sized space for ministry events, celebrations, and times of care that we are calling the Atrium. These improvements are designed to foster meaningful relationships and help more people find their place within the Eastbrook family.

The new ATRIUM
will create a clear and welcoming front door for Eastbrook, making it easier for regular attendees and guests to enter and navigate our building.
With a more accessible entrance and a warm, inviting arrival, the Atrium will help everyone who comes through our doors feel welcomed from the moment they arrive.

WORSHIP HALL

More than just an entryway, the new ATRIUM will be a flexible gathering space designed to foster connection and community. It will create room for conversations before and after services, host Bible studies, ministry events, and other gatherings throughout the week, while also providing valuable overflow seating for Christmas, Easter, and other large services.

Figure 5. See pages 60-64 for site/floor plans, and turn to pages 18-19 for an alternate view of the Atrium.

An updated WORSHIP HALL will enhance the worship experience by creating a more comfortable and connected environment for everyone. Reorienting the room 180° will improve sight lines, streamline traffic flow, and increase seating capacity to better accommodate our growing congregation. Most importantly, the redesign will improve accessibility, making it easier for people of all ages and abilities to enter, navigate, participate in worship, and feel fully included in the life of our church.

HERE FOR THE GOOD OF THE CITY

When Eastbrook moved to Green Bay Avenue, it gained more than a permanent home. It gained the opportunity to dream about new ways to serve the surrounding community. One of those opportunities emerged through the Bread of Healing Clinic which has grown into a vital source of care and support for our neighbors.

Today, the clinic operates across multiple shared spaces, requiring significant setup and tear-down each time it opens its doors. Through Here for Good, we have the opportunity to create a permanent, dedicated home for the Bread of Healing Eastbrook Clinic. The re-envisioned space will address two critical needs: it will provide double the number of clinic rooms to meet growing demand, while also consolidating the overall footprint into a more efficient space. This will meet the needs of the growing clinic as well as free up space for use by Eastbrook Academy and other ministries:

- 8 new exam rooms
- a new eye clinic
- a dedicated lab space
- a permanent waiting room
- med room
- storage
- consultation space

See pages 63-64 for floor plans.

Campus Improvements: $13M CAMPUS STEWARDSHIP

For nearly a century, the Eastbrook campus has been a place of worship, learning, ministry, and community. Today, many of the systems that support these spaces have reached a point where significant investment is needed to keep our campus safe, effective, and ready for the future.

Through Here for Good, we are renewing essential HVAC, electrical, plumbing, fire alarm, security, and technology systems across our campus. By investing in this foundational infrastructure today, we are stewarding what God has entrusted to us and preparing Eastbrook to support ministry, outreach, and community life for generations to come.

While much of the Campus Stewardship that we will undertake during Here for Good will be "invisible", one significant improvement that we plan to undertake is to remodel the RESTROOMS IN THE A-WING.

CAMPUS STEWARDSHIP

A PRAYER FOR "HERE FOR GOOD"

*Holy and awesome God,
Father, Son, and Holy Spirit,
You are faithful and good,
gracious and loving.
We, your people at Eastbrook, humbly seek Your face
as we embark on this undertaking.
We ask You to transform us to be more like You,
lead us with divine wisdom,
provide for us with surprising generosity, protect us from the attacks of the evil one,
and hold us as one as You are one.
All this we pray through Jesus Christ our Lord, who with You, Father, and the Holy Spirit, are more powerful and loving than we can comprehend.
Amen.*

Growing in our journey as a giver is less about a specific amount or percentage than it is about the attitude and priorities of our hearts. The goal is to keep taking steps that represent personal growth toward a lifestyle of generosity and sacrifice—one more and more like Jesus. We do not ascend to God or earn His favor by our giving, but we do express His impact and importance in our lives. Scripture encourages us to grow in every facet of our walk with Christ, including the grace of giving.

INITIAL GIVER

I have started to give out of a response to God's Word. I may do more or give more frequently in the future, but I have decided to give something and am trusting God and the leaders of the church with this gift. (2 Corinthians 8:7-15)

CONSISTENT GIVER

I exercise the discipline of giving regularly to the Lord's work through His church. I give a recurring gift online in order to be more consistent. Or, I have other disciplines I use to ensure that I'm giving regularly and not just sporadically. (2 Corinthians 9:6-8)

INTENTIONAL GIVER

I give sincere thought to how my giving to the work of the church and kingdom relates to the other areas where I spend my money. I have started making my giving an intentional choice that reflects the priority I put on being an agent of God's purposes. I know the amount or percentage I want to commit to God. (Luke 14:28-35)

SACRIFICIAL GIVER

I have thought quite a bit about the long-term (vs. month-to-month) effects of my generosity. I make short-term decisions about spending (particularly about larger-ticket items) in light of my long-term commitment to have my generosity reflect my faith and God's interest. (2 Samuel 24:18-25)

LEGACY GIVER

I recognize the cost Christ paid on the Cross for me and the beauty of His kingdom's life. How I steward all Jesus won for me ripples out around me and echoes into eternity. I seek to honor God with 100% of who I am and what I have. I give in a way that changes and challenges me. My giving drives my living rather than my living driving my giving. (1 Timothy 6:6-9)

2 Corinthians 8:7

Here for Good Fund

We are asking the church to prayerfully consider how they may be part of the $12.3 million Here for Good Fund, which will fund our ministry and mission for the next two years, and also allow us to improve our campus in significant ways.

One Fund Approach

Often, church giving is divided into categories: capital/building campaigns, operations, missions, and other needs. Individuals then have to prayerfully consider to which fund they will give. The result is that some areas can be over-funded while others are underfunded. People may feel left out of giving to a specific initiative or feel their giving isn't supporting the most effective ministry goal.

Over the next two years, we are focusing our generosity on one Here for Good Fund—a single fund that will receive gifts and offerings and use them to fund our vision. Everything will be deposited into this fund and then drawn from it for each specific initiative goal. From December 2026 through December 31, 2028, every gift given to Eastbrook Church will go into the Here for Good Fund to support all of the important ongoing ministry and missions work, as well as our campus improvements.

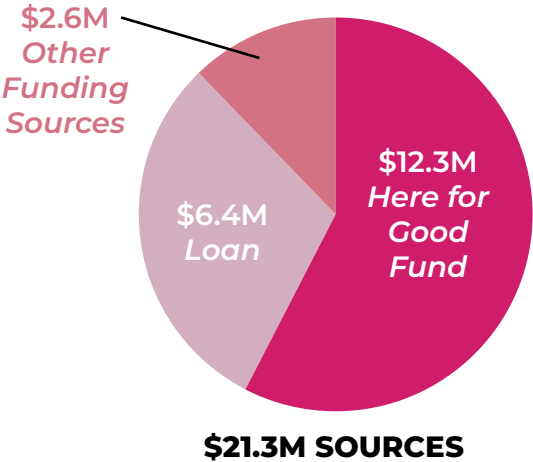

Funds: Sources & Expenses

Here for Good is Phase 1 of a multi-phase campus improvement plan. Through diligent collaboration with Eastbrook Church, Eastbrook Academy, EUA Architects, and Berghammer Construction, we have determined that the total cost of Phase 1 of our campus expansion is $13 million. When we include two years of ministry, that total is $21.3 million, as shown on page 8.

Our goal is to raise $12.3 million through the Here for Good Fund, pursue $2.6M from other funding sources, such as the New Market Tax Credit (NMTC), and finance the remaining $6.4 million, if needed.

SERIES GUIDE

"Given Good"

October 18, 2026 • 2 Corinthians 8:1-8 • Pastor Matt Erickson

"In the midst of a very severe trial, their overflowing joy and their extreme poverty welled up in rich generosity." (2 Corinthians 8:1-7)

All We Have Has First Been Given (2 Corinthians 8:1)

- God's grace is preeminent in our lives
- All we have is a gift from God

We Give All in Response to the Lord of All (2 Corinthians 8:5)

- If all we have is given by God
- In response we give ourselves back to the Lord of all
- In response we give all we have back to the Lord of all

An Example of Voluntarily Giving Above and Beyond (2 Corinthians 8:1-5)

- The Macedonians' example of giving
- The Macedonians' challenging circumstances
- The Macedonians' deep desire to give
- The Macedonians gave freely and voluntarily
- The Macedonians gave above and beyond

Excelling in Gracious Giving (2 Corinthians 8:6-7)

- The invitation to the Corinthians through Titus
- The invitation to match their excellence in faith, speech, and knowledge with excelling in the grace of giving

Group Discussion

BIG IDEA: God's grace is the source of our goodness. We don't give to get grace; we give because we have it.

OPEN UP

Everyone in your group should answer 1 of these 2 questions.

- Share a time someone showed you "undeserved" kindness. How did it change your mood or your day?
- What is a project you have started but stalled on finishing? What has kept you from completing it?

DIG IN

Read 2 Corinthians 8:1-8.

1. Paul highlights the Macedonian churches who gave out of "extreme poverty." What are the various ways Paul describes the Macedonians in this section?

2. How do the attitudes he ascribes to them correlate to some of the situations he says they were facing? What would you say is unusual about that? How would we normally expect people to react to those situations?

3. What do you think Paul means when he says they "gave themselves first to the Lord"? What difference would you think that makes in how they responded to both their circumstances and their response to the need they see in the Jerusalem church?

4. Considering some of the situations happening in the Corinthian church Paul has been addressing, why do you think he would point them to the Macedonians example? In other words, what might this “test” of generosity reveal about the Corinthians to themselves?

5. How would you say grace changes our perspective on what we "have" versus what we can "give"?

LOOK UP

Grace is sometimes receiving what you don't deserve (a gift) and sometimes not receiving what you do deserve (punishment). Spend time in prayer thanking God for the specific ways His grace has "overflowed" into your life this year.

LIVE IT OUT

This week, look for one "Macedonian" opportunity—a chance to be generous even if you feel you have little to offer. It could be with your time, your energy, or your resources (providing a meal for someone, food for the food pantry, a gift card, etc.).

DIG DEEPER

Use the prompts to identify where you are at in your faith journey and let's dig in!

- Exploring Faith—The Macedonians were generous in spite of their circumstances because they recognized the gift of grace God had showed them. Does the idea of "grace" (getting what we don't deserve) change your view of God?
- New Disciple—Grace isn't just for salvation; it's for daily living. How does knowing you are already fully loved by God change why you give or serve? Memorize verse 5 as an example for us to follow.
- Christ-Centered Disciple—Paul notes the Macedonians gave out of "extreme poverty." Identify a "poverty" in your life (time, energy, or finances) where you are currently making excuses instead of trusting God's grace to overflow. What specific steps will you take this week to be generous towards another in response to God's grace towards you? How will you make it clear to them that your generosity is because of God?

FOR KIDS (K4-GRADE 4)

Our kids ministry challenge this week is built from Proverbs 3:27-28. The challenge is for kids to be generous with their time—both in acts of friendship or service. If there are any younger children in your group, help them think through opportunities they may have to live this out this week. Find the kids guide online at eastbrook.org/hereforgoodkids.

Missions Moment: The Next Generation of Field Workers

Just months before the pandemic, we finally returned to Paris to visit Farida, a faithful field worker we have walked alongside for decades. In her modest apartment, she gathered her team of leaders that have discipled and equipped new believers across the Muslim world from North Africa through to Asia.

Among them was a younger leader who she was raising up. When his country used the pandemic to close Christian churches, he returned home with his family, despite limited support. Trusting God to provide, they gave their time and presence generously. They pastored scattered believers, visiting them, and reminding them they were not alone.

Today, this leader now serves formally with Farida's organization and earlier this year became Eastbrook's newest field worker. Together they train emerging leaders who are living sacrificially to send field workers to places closed off to Americans.

"All for Good"

October 25, 2026 • 2 Corinthians 8:9-15 • Pastor Matt Erickson

"For you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, yet for your sake he became poor, so that you through his poverty might become rich." (2 Corinthians 8:9)

Jesus the True Example of Generous Goodness (2 Corinthians 8:8-9)

- All comparisons stop at the grace we encounter in Jesus
- Jesus let go of His riches to become poor for us
- And we through His poverty have become rich
- The Gospel is centered in Jesus' generous goodness

The Marks of Truly Good Generosity (2 Corinthians 8:10-15)

- Willingness in generosity
- Moving in generosity toward completion of a good goal
- Equality in sacrifice and sharing in the good

Living in Jesus' Focused Generosity

- Perspective
- Willingness
- Completion
- Equality

Group Discussion

BIG IDEA: Jesus is our ultimate model of generosity. Real love is an action, not just a feeling.

OPEN UP

Everyone in your group should answer 1 of these 2 questions.

- What is the most generous act you've ever seen?
- What is something you've wanted to do over the past several years, but you just haven't been able to accomplish?

DIG IN

Read 2 Corinthians 8:9-15.

1. Why do you think Paul calls this a “test of the sincerity of their love”?

2. How do you think a proper understanding of the gospel and what Jesus did actually increase our love for God and our capacity for generous living?

3. Based on verses 11b & 12, what do you think kept the Corinthians from “completing” the work of giving they began? Has this ever impacted you?

4. What principle of giving does Paul teach in verse 12? What does this mean to you?

5. What does Paul say to them in verses 13-15 to reassure them that they can complete their work of giving?

LOOK UP

Pray for the families involved in Sunday's Child Dedication. Ask God to help us model the sacrificial love Paul describes here in this section to the next generation.

LIVE IT OUT

Identify one practical need in your neighborhood, small group, or workplace. How can you act in "generous goodness" to impact that need this week? Or look at verse 11. Is there a "good intention" you've had regarding your faith or generosity that you haven't finished yet? What is one step you will take to complete it?

DIG DEEPER

- Exploring Faith—What typically motivates your generosity? (guilt, duty, thankfulness, love, etc.). How might an example of someone like Jesus inspire your generosity instead?
 - New Disciple—What typically motivates your generosity? (guilt, duty, thankfulness, love, etc.) How can you reorient your generosity to be an outflow of what you know Jesus has done for you? Memorize Matthew 6:21 as a “reorienting” verse for our approach to generosity.
 - Christ-Centered Disciple—Verse 14 speaks of “fairness” and “abundance” meeting “need.” Christ-Centered Disciples are sacrificially investing in others for God’s Kingdom. Whether through actual resources or in other ways, how are you able to be the “abundance” for someone else’s “lack” right now?

FOR KIDS (K4-GRADE 4)

Our kids ministry challenge this week is built from Proverbs 12:25. The challenge is for kids to be generous with their friendship. If there are any children in your group, help them think through opportunities they may have to act like a friend to their siblings or others this week. What will that look like? Find the kids guide online at eastbrook.org/hereforgoodkids.

Missions Moment: Welcoming the Stranger

Following the fall of Afghanistan in 2021, Eastbrook received a unique invitation. Our decades of experience with international students and refugees opened the door for us to be asked to host a cohort of Afghan women studying at UW-Milwaukee.

We stepped out in faith and accepted the invitation. Within just a week or two, we had more than enough host families. Through our Thanksgiving offering a few weeks later, their first semester tuition was covered, and God took it the rest of the way. This May, we celebrated the students' graduation, and the fact that their tuition costs were completely covered through an unexpected mix of grants, scholarships, and donations that arose from within our church community.

But the fruit of this season is more than just the resources, it is the relationships that have formed and deepened among so many of our members and these wonderful women. While we will never replace their families back home, we were able to generously open our homes, our lives, and our hearts to them not just for a season but for their lifetime. We look forward to continuing to walk with each woman wherever their story may lead.

"Stewards of Good"

November 1, 2026 • 2 Corinthians 8:16-24 • Pastor Matt Erickson

"He was chosen by the churches to accompany us as we carry the offering, which we administer in order to honor the Lord himself and to show our eagerness to help." (2 Corinthians 8:19)

Stewarding Generosity for Good (2 Corinthians 8:19-21)

- The offering given to honor the Lord
- The offering given to bring goodness to the church in Jerusalem
- The offering given out of goodness from churches around the Mediterranean
- The offering entrusted to faithful stewards to remain above board

Stewarding Generosity in Good Community (2 Corinthians 8:16-24)

- Titus (vss 16-17, 23)
 - Paul's co-worker in ministry
 - Enthusiastically willing in this work
- "The brother" (vss 18-19)
 - Praised by all the churches
 - Chosen by the churches to accompany the generous work
- "Our brother" (vs 22)
 - Zealous and diligent
 - Even more so in this work

Stewarding Generosity for Good

- Generous and good for the honor of the Lord
- Generous and good within community
- Generous and good with integrity
- Generous and good in service of others

Group Discussion

BIG IDEA: Stewardship is a high calling. How we handle resources reflects our heart for God's glory.

OPEN UP

Everyone in your group should answer 1 of these 2 questions.

- Who is the most "trustworthy" person you know? What traits make them that way?
- Who do you most trust with your money? The bank? A financial advisor? Your "piggy" bank? No one? Why?

DIG IN

Read 2 Corinthians 8:16-24.

1. In this section, Paul describes the team coming to Corinth to help with the collection and to accompany the gift back to where it will be distributed. How does he describe those coming?

2. Why do you think these attributes were worth mentioning in this context?

3. What are some of the benefits of sending a team to accomplish this task?

4. Notice Paul's care and design in sending this particular team to collect the offering from the Corinthians.
- For the glory of the Lord (vs. 19)
 - So that no one should blame us (vs. 20)
 - We aim at what is honorable (vs. 21)
 - Not only in the Lord's sight but also in the sight of man (vs. 21)

What does the way Paul approaches the offering and his plan to gather/collect/transport it say about his view of it? In other words, why did it matter to him so much to handle this the right way and stay above reproach? (See also 1 Corinthians 16:1-3.)

LOOK UP

Pray that God would give you the wisdom to handle your finances and generosity in an “above reproach” way.

LIVE IT OUT

Participate in the Boxes of Love project (learn more at eastbrook.org/boxesoflove). How can you, your household, or your small group serve this initiative?

DIG DEEPER

- Exploring Faith—Why do you think many people are skeptical of how churches or charities handle money? What would "integrity" look like to you in a spiritual community?
- New Disciple—Stewardship means God owns it, and we manage it. What is one area of your life (talents, schedule, or money) that you still feel like you "own" rather than "manage" for Him? Who can you go to to ask to hold you accountable as you give this over to God?
- Christ-Centered Disciple—Titus and the other brothers were used by God to enable and encourage the Corinthians in their generosity. Who is God using you to help develop their generosity? Are there people in your life that you can invite to participate in things like the Boxes of Love or other generosity initiatives?

FOR KIDS (K4-GRADE 4)

Our kids ministry challenge this week is built from Proverbs 22:9. The challenge is for kids to be generous through sharing, especially food. If there are any children in your group, help them think through how they can be part of the Boxes of Love campaign. Find the kids guide online at eastbrook.org/hereforgoodkids.

Missions Moment: Education in the Holy Land

"We need to go, the sirens are sounding." With that, the video from our field workers attending Mission Prayer one Sunday morning went dark. Having endured many conflicts in the Holy Land, they again sought shelter with their teenage sons and waited for the threat to pass. Minutes later, they returned and continued their update.

That morning reflected their faithful calling through the years: to serve their neighbors, particularly through education. Despite challenges, the Holy Land Ministries team persevered, stewarding the education and care of hundreds of students. They completed the accreditation process, administered their first standardized high school tests, and navigated a struggling local economy while operating a private school.

Then the first test scores arrived. They confirmed that the team had built a premier school, providing an excellent education and opening university opportunities for students who often felt hopeless about their futures. College acceptance letters soon followed for the first graduating class. Through sacrifice, endurance, and careful stewardship of everything God entrusted to them, our field workers established a school now widely recognized for providing quality education throughout their country. And we have strengthened our support through Here for Good for the years to come.

"Hearts for Good"

November 8, 2026 • 2 Corinthians 9:1-7 • Pastor Matt Erickson

"Each of you should give what you have decided in your heart to give, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver." (2 Corinthians 9:7)

Ready with Generous Goodness (2 Corinthians 9:1-5)

- Paul wants to ensure the Corinthians make good on their promises
- Paul wants to ensure the Corinthians are ready
- Paul wants to do this so the Corinthians give generously not grudgingly

Gardening Sparingly or Generously? (2 Corinthians 9:6)

- Sowing and reaping sparingly
- Sowing and reaping generously

Hearts of Generous Goodness (2 Corinthians 9:7)

- True generosity flows from the heart
- True generosity is not forced or under compulsion
- True generosity stands before God

Group Discussion

BIG IDEA: God loves a cheerful giver. Generosity should be a "want to," not a "have to."

OPEN UP

Everyone in your group should answer 1 of these 2 questions.

- What is something you love to do so much that it never feels like a chore?
- What is something small that instantly makes your day better?

DIG IN

Read 2 Corinthians 9:1-7.

1. What do verses 1 & 2 tell us about how generosity can be encouraged?

2. Why do you think Paul places such emphasis on the preparation and readiness of the Corinthians' gift?

3. According to 2 Corinthians 9:6, Paul cites the Old Testament principle that the more we give, the more we receive in return. So, is he saying that if you give $100 you will receive $1,000 back? Why or why not?

4. How would you explain what Paul is saying there? Can you think of examples in your own life where this has proven to be true?

5. What would you say is the difference in giving “as you have decided in your heart” and giving under pressure?

6. 2 Corinthians 9:7 says that God loves a cheerful giver. Why is our attitude toward giving just as important as the act of giving itself? What changes when we give with joy instead of reluctance?

7. How would you characterize your own attitude towards giving?

LOOK UP

Confidently Praise God for His willingness and ability to provide all we need all the time so that we can do all things for Him. Also, given that this week is Election Day and Veterans Day, pray for peace in our nation and gratitude for those who have generously served.

LIVE IT OUT

Practice "stealth generosity" this week—do something kind or generous for someone without letting them know it was you. Take a moment to reflect on how that made you feel to be generous, even without praise from someone else.

DIG DEEPER

- Exploring Faith—Does the idea of "cheerful giving" seem realistic or like a "guilt trip"? What makes you want to be generous to a cause?
- New Disciple—Verse 7 says to give what you have "decided in your heart." Take 5 minutes of silence. Ask the Holy Spirit to put a specific "decision" or "number" in your heart for this season. Find someone you can share that with to hold you accountable to it.
- Christ-Centered Disciple—How do you guard against "reluctance" or "compulsion" after years of serving and giving? How do you keep the "joy" fresh in your stewardship? Who can you encourage towards generosity this week?

FOR KIDS (K4-GRADE 4)

Our kids ministry challenge this week is built from Proverbs 31:19-20. The challenge is for kids to be generous with their talents or hobbies. If there are any children in your group, help them think through how they could use those talents to encourage and bless others. Find the kids guide online at eastbrook.org/hereforgoodkids.

Missions Moment: An Abundance of Joy

On a busy fall morning before the holidays, every chair in the Food Pantry waiting area was filled. Amid the activity, a volunteer observed, "There is a lot of joy here." Volunteers talked with guests, guests joked with one another, and the room felt connected.

Many people come to us during difficult seasons: a job loss, a medical diagnosis, the death of a loved one, or another unexpected crisis. From the Food Pantry's beginning decades ago, our leaders have insisted that generosity will always be our default. When we adopted a choice model, allowing guests to select food for their households, we discovered an even stronger connection between generosity, dignity, and community.

The food we provide can feel like a small response to the enormous challenges our neighbors face. Yet when we serve with joy and open hearts, God draws us more deeply into one another's lives. We hope to keep building these relationships, walking alongside our neighbors, and expanding our ministry of care and support as they navigate whatever comes next.

"Harvest of Good"

November 15, 2026 • 2 Corinthians 9:8-15 • Pastor Matt Erickson

"God is able to bless you abundantly, so that in all things at all times, having all that you need, you will abound in every good work." (2 Corinthians 9:8)

Generosity Comes from God (2 Corinthians 9:8-11)

- God is a giver
- God is a generous giver
- God gives generously to us

God Gives Generously to Us for the Sake of Others (2 Corinthians 9:8-11)

- God's generosity abounds in every good work
- God's generosity leads to care for the poor
- God's generosity leads to a harvest of righteousness
- God's generosity leads to ever-increasing generosity in us

Our Generosity Leads to God (2 Corinthians 9:12-15)

- God gives and we become generous
- Our generosity leads others to thank and praise God
- Our generosity leads others to hold us up in prayer before God

Group Discussion

BIG IDEA: Our generosity starts a chain reaction: it meets needs, spreads goodness, and results in a harvest of praise to God.

OPEN UP

Everyone in your group should answer 1 of these 2 questions.

- What is something you saved to purchase as a kid? Was it worth it? Why or why not?
- Looking back at this series, what is one "seed" God has planted in your heart regarding generosity?

DIG IN

Read 2 Corinthians 9:8-15.

1. What do you think the "grace" in verse 8 refers to?

2. How does the promise of God's provision—that He provides all we need—enable you to be more generous in this season?

3. According to verse 10, what is the return God is hoping to see from His investment of grace in us?

4. How do you think the harvest of righteousness can be increased by our joyful generosity toward God's work?

5. Note the three results of generosity Paul describes in verses 12-14. How do you think these things happen because of generosity?

6. How do you think our giving becomes an act of evangelism?

 LOOK UP

Today is Commitment Sunday. Spend time in silence, then pray a prayer of total surrender as a group, offering your lives as a "harvest of praise."

 LIVE IT OUT

How can we as a small group continue to be "Here for Good" in our city even after this series ends?

DIG DEEPER

- Exploring Faith—When you see someone being truly generous, what is your first thought about them? About God?
- New Disciple—Ask God to help you determine something you can and will live without for a period of time. Take the money you would have spent on that and look for ways to further God's kingdom with it. Memorize 2 Corinthians 9:11 as a reminder of the "why" behind what you are committing to.
- Christ-Centered Disciple—Reflect on the "harvest" of your life so far. How can sharing your legacy of generosity point people toward the "incredible gift" of Jesus? How can you share the story of your journey of generosity with others in your life?

FOR KIDS (K4-GRADE 4)

Our kids ministry challenge this week is built from Proverbs 3:9. The challenge is for kids to be generous with their possessions – challenging them to sacrificial giving. If there are any children in your group, include them in the conversation on what you as a family or they as individuals can live without in order to give to further God's work. Find the kids guide online at eastbrook.org/hereforgoodkids.

Missions Moment: Harvest of Good

"You should meet this guy," said one of our field workers, who had returned to the Horn of Africa after serving with Eastbrook's original team in the 1980s. He had met a young tailor whom God had brought to faith and gifted with a passion for sharing it. "He can't stop talking about Jesus."

He sounded like someone we wanted to meet. Through our field worker, the relationship grew. After twists and turns, the young man enrolled in a Bible college in a neighboring country, and Eastbrook sponsored his studies. There, he also reconnected with another of our field workers, Abdi Duale, who was building the first Somali-led team for his sending agency.

This year, after graduating, the young man and his family joined Abdi's team. He will serve as a field worker, discipling new believers in the region. His story opens a new chapter in Eastbrook's 50-year history. We are witnessing the answered prayers of those who came before us, and receiving the baton from them, as God raises a generation to carry the gospel forward in the Horn of Africa.

WHAT'S THE PURPOSE OF A GENEROSITY INITIATIVE? DON'T WE HAVE ENOUGH FUNDS ALREADY?

Generosity initiatives serve several important purposes:

1. They provide a high-profile focal point for stewardship, education, reflection, and commitment. This is valuable to all of us but especially important for the many hundreds of people who have come into the life of Eastbrook Church recently.
2. They help us raise monies over-and-above our annual budget to address special needs and opportunities. Our annual budget covers the cost of the routine operations of our church and its ministries. Our "normal" budget, however, doesn't cover the major renovations or special projects that make for a truly thriving church.

HOW LONG WILL THE HERE FOR GOOD INITIATIVE RUN?

The giving season for Here for Good will begin with Celebration Sunday on Sunday, December 6, 2026 and will continue through Friday, December 31, 2028.

WHY ARE WE DOING A GENEROSITY INITIATIVE IN LIGHT OF THE CURRENT ECONOMY?

We recognize that these are challenging and uncertain economic times for many individuals and families. Yet the need for ministry has not diminished. People still need the hope of Christ, children and students still need discipleship, our neighbors still need care, and our campus requires faithful stewardship for future generations. Here for Good is an invitation for each person to prayerfully seek God's leading and respond according to their circumstances, trusting that God can use our collective faith and generosity to advance His mission in Milwaukee and around the world.

*Here for Good FundWHAT IS THE HERE FOR GOOD FUND?

The Here for Good Fund is one fund over the next two years that will allow Eastbrook to do ministry, support missions, and improve the campus, all through a single church-wide generosity initiative.

WILL EASTBROOK ACADEMY BE CONTRIBUTING TO THE HERE FOR GOOD FUND?

In this first phase of the project, Eastbrook Academy will contribute as they are able through pursuing relevant grants, donors, and funding sources that Eastbrook Church does not have access to. We expect Eastbrook Academy will be more actively involved in future phases.

WHAT IS A NEW MARKET TAX CREDIT?

A New Market Tax Credit (NMTC) is a federal economic development program designed to encourage private investment in low-income and under-served communities. The program is administered by the U.S. Treasury Department's Community Development Financial Institutions (CDFI) Fund. Investors receive a federal tax credit in exchange for making investments in qualified community development organizations, which then finance projects in eligible communities. As we pursue the New Market Tax Credit, we are also exploring additional funding sources and opportunities.

WHAT HAPPENS IF WE DON'T REACH OUR GOAL?

Our ultimate goal in Here for Good is spiritual, not financial. We are trusting God to lead each person to respond in faith and generosity as He directs. If we do not reach our full giving goal, Eastbrook's leadership will prayerfully evaluate the timing and scope of projects, prioritize the most important campus stewardship and ministry needs, and utilize other planned funding sources, including New Market Tax Credits and financing as appropriate. Regardless of the final amount raised, every gift given will be used to strengthen ministry, support missions, and invest in the future impact of Eastbrook Church.

WHY ARE WE TAKING OUT A LOAN RATHER THAN ASKING THE CHURCH TO BE MORE GENEROUS?

Here for Good already represents a significant step of faith and generosity for our church family, and we want this initiative to be both inspiring and achievable. By combining generosity, New Markets Tax Credits, and a limited amount of financing, we can move forward with critical ministry and campus investments while remaining responsible stewards of the resources God has entrusted to us. This approach allows us to meet today's ministry opportunities and facility needs without placing the entire burden on current giving.

Campus Improvement Plan

WHAT ARE THE OTHER PHASES OF THE CAMPUS IMPROVEMENT PLAN?

Future phases of the campus improvement plan will address other aging buildings on campus, such as Holy Grounds and the Church Office (Administration) building, and will expand classrooms for both Church and Academy ministry. You can see site and floor plans on pages 60-64 for future phases, as they stand now.

WHAT DOES THE TIMELINE LOOK LIKE FOR THE PHASES?

We do not currently have a strict timeline in place for future phases. Our priority is on Here for Good, which addresses the most urgent ministry and campus needs first.

HOW WILL EASTBROOK MAINTAIN OPERATING COSTS ONCE THE BUILDING RENOVATIONS ARE COMPLETE?

We are planning appropriately for future operational cost changes that will occur when the building renovations are complete. We anticipate there will be some cost savings through updated building systems (e.g., HVAC, electrical, plumbing), but also increased costs with new campus spaces. Our ministry services team and Church Council will budget appropriately for this and believe our church's giving will be able to handle these increased costs.

HOW WILL THIS PROJECT IMPACT ONGOING GIVING?

Through Here for Good, Eastbrook is using a One Fund approach, which means regular giving, missions giving, and campus improvement giving are combined into a single generosity initiative for the two-year commitment period. Rather than asking people to choose between supporting ongoing ministry and supporting campus improvements, every gift to the Here for Good Fund helps advance the full vision, including core ministries, local and global missions, and campus improvements. Our goal is that ministry and missions remain strong throughout the initiative, not that they take a back seat to facility projects. In fact, a significant portion of the overall vision is dedicated to sustaining and expanding ministry and missions alongside investing in our campus.

Giving & Generosity

HOW CAN I MAKE A GIFT TO THE HERE FOR GOOD FUND? WILL MY GIFT BE TAX-DEDUCTIBLE?

During the two year giving period for Here for Good, all giving at Eastbrook will be part of the Here for Good fund and gifts can be made online at eastbrook.org/giving, or by using the giving boxes in the Worship Hall. If you would like to make a one-time gift or give through stored resources, our church administrative staff are available to help facilitate that. All gifts will be tax-deductible.

WHAT ARE YOU ASKING ME TO DO IN THIS INITIATIVE?

First and foremost, we are asking that you pray and seek God's leading on what He is asking of you. Prepare your heart to hear Him, and then listen to what He says. Join a small group. Talk with a trusted friend or, if you're married and have children, talk together about what this commitment will mean for this next season.

HOW LONG IS MY COMMITMENT?

We are asking everyone who calls Eastbrook their church home to make a two year commitment—24 months of giving. The fulfillment period for commitments begins on December 6, 2026 and concludes December 31, 2028. Every gift given during this time will go toward the Here for Good Fund to support ongoing ministry as well as campus improvements.

WHAT IF I AM BRAND NEW TO EASTBROOK CHURCH?

Here for Good is about the vision God has for our church family. We believe that the local church is one of the most compelling missions to give toward, and we would really love for you to make Eastbrook Church your home. If you are ready for it, this is a perfect time for you to put a stake in the ground and make this your church. We are so grateful you are here!

WHAT IF I HAVE NOT BEEN A REGULAR GIVER TO EASTBROOK CHURCH BEFORE?

If you have never before or only occasionally given financially to Eastbrook Church, Here for Good was crafted as a opportunity to see how God will use your gifts for kingdom impact and how your obedience will transform you. Here for Good is a whole-church generosity initiative and is a call to radical, sacrificial giving for absolutely everyone at Eastbrook Church.

CAN I DESIGNATE GIVING TO ONE PART OF THE PROJECT?

We are asking people to generously respond to the full Here for Good vision over the next two years through our Here for Good Fund. Our leadership has been entrusted with the responsibility of prioritizing spending on the new initiatives and management of the funds and will do so with great care and stewardship of the resources that are given. Please reach out to Lupe Dueñas, Sr. Director of Ministry Services at 414.228.5220 or lduenas@eastbrook.org if you have additional questions or would like to discuss this further.

IN ADDITION TO CASH, ARE THERE OTHER WAYS I CAN GIVE MORE TO THE HERE FOR GOOD INITIATIVE?

Be prayerful and creative as you explore ways you can give to the initiative. You might have stock, property, or other items of value. You may have stored resources that God has blessed you with in the past that He is calling you to give out of during this time. Please reach out to Lupe Dueñas, Sr. Director of Ministry Services at 414.228.5220 or lduenas@eastbrook.org if you have additional questions or would like to discuss this further.

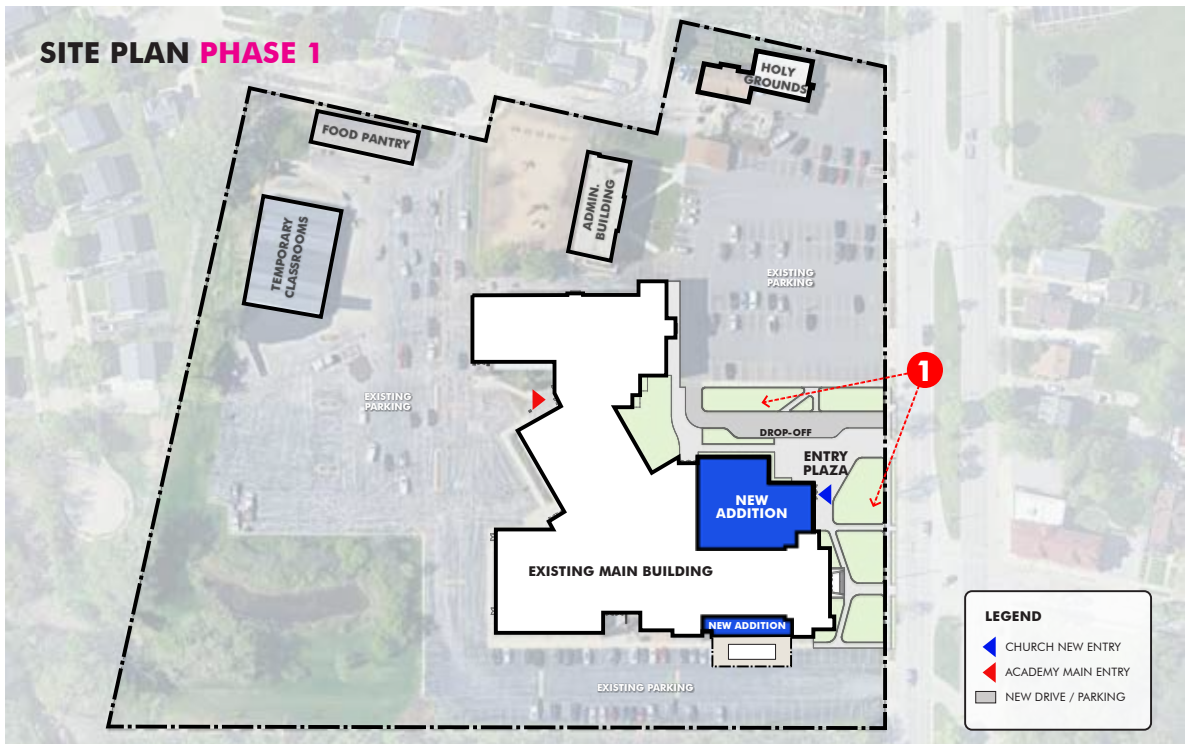

I AM UNCOMFORTABLE WHEN WE FOCUS SO MUCH ATTENTION ON MONEY. CAN YOU HELP ME?

Jesus spoke about generosity more than any other topic in Scripture. Not only does Jesus talk about giving, He instructs us how much to give. In Matthew 6:21 He says, "For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also." Generosity is about more than just money. It is about our heart posture and living a life clearly committed to Christ.

IN ADDITION TO A FINANCIAL COMMITMENT, HOW ELSE CAN I PARTICIPATE IN HERE FOR GOOD?

We want everyone at Eastbrook Church to engage on a transformative spiritual journey through Here for Good by praying, studying Scripture, participating in small group life and engaging others in the journey. Consider sharing your story with others. Join or lead a group (sign up at eastbrook.org/hereforgoodgroup). Serve faithfully or for the first time. Take the next step in your journey of discipleship and see what God does.
